

Rik Roberts

creative keynotes & clean humor

With nearly three decades of performing and speaking under his belt, Rik can deliver a program that will unite your group through humor, motivation – or a blend of both.

Rik spent his youth in Kentucky working on tobacco and horse farms before earning a degree in communications and eventually finding his calling in stand-up comedy. He's been featured on "Stand-Up For Families" (DOVE), "Clean Comedy All-Stars" (PURE FLIX), and "20 Greatest Redneck Moments" on CMT.

His keynotes blend humor and actionable takeaways in an offsetting way that will have your group laughing and taking notes all at the same time. He infuses his keynote programs with stories, facts, current events, visuals and crowd participation to make the points relevant to each group.

Rik is a perfect fit for Ag groups, User Conferences, Association and Corporate Groups, Chambers of Commerce, Holiday Parties, Leadership Retreats and Church Outreach programs. In a nutshell, if you need a professional speaker who can deliver a pure comedy show, or blend the comedy with motivation – Rik is your man!

THE MAYBERRY METHOD (Productivity)

Using Mayberry as a through line, Rik helps your group find more time and productivity. Get back to basics and regain control of your day! The Mayberry Method is for groups who want to eliminate distractions, manage time more effectively, set clearer goals and provide their customer with EXTREME customer service. You can even have Rik appear as "Barney Fife" in uniform to make this creative keynote one they'll never forget!

LISTEN UP, LAUGH IT UP (Teambuilding)

A workshop for groups who want to establish trust and confidence between team members! First, Rik delivers a little stand-up to refresh your group and get the blood flowing. Next, he will have you on your feet interacting with each other as you are led through improvisational listening and agreement exercises. This program is "hands-on" learning with applicable takeaways for groups who want to reach higher goals together. It's a great fit for leadership conferences, sales meetings, customer service trainings and corporate events.

IT'S FUNNY NOW (Entertainment)

Let Rik take you on a fun, fast paced ride through life with his takes on family, farming, hunting, marriage, technology, parenting, pop culture, music and more. Ages eight to eighty will all find laughs connecting with Rik's experiences. The 100% clean, family friendly stand-up show ends with a few original comedy songs, audience participation and some "Kodak" moments you don't want to miss.
